

Medway launches Community Television Network

Launch Venue - Commissioner's House - 2nd March 2007

Area Commander Jan Stephens speaking at the launch of Medway Community Safety Partnership TV

Jan Stephens said:

"The screens are a really good way to let the public know we are doing something to tackle their concerns"

Medway Community TV is now broadcasting useful local information, including community safety messages, national news, weather & sport, emergency messages and crime reduction initiatives to help combat crime and reduce the fear of crime within the area. The screen venues throughout Medway include Monkey Bizz, The Pentagon Shopping Centre, The Black Lion Leisure Centre, Strood Leisure Centre, Medway Maritime Hospital, The Thomas Aveling School, Morrisons at Knight Rd Strood, Morrisons Princes Ave Chatham, Council Municipal Buildings, The Hundred of Hoo School, Rainham Healthy Living Centre.

Now

Plasma Screens
located in public areas broadcasting a range of partnership content

MEDWAY today launched Community Television Network. Plasma screens have been installed in a variety of venues around Medway. The Partnership are now broadcasting community safety information directly into the heart of the community.

CCN supplies partnerships with dedicated, managed television networks throughout their districts. These networks showcase the partnerships' achievements, results and the positive changes taking place within their communities. By broadcasting updateable, informative video and emergency messages, the system enables the partnerships to communicate, engage, consult and provide reassurance to both the general public and the business sector.
